

he is a funny, likeable, lovable, energetic, always going the extra mile for anybody even if he doesn't know them kinds guy. He is always the life of the party with his quicky jokes and funny demeanor. he has helped me and his sister through thick and thin. he is always helping someone to build things for their car, shovel their sidewalks or driveways transport to appointments if necessary he goes out of way for others cause he has a big heart. I love being surrounded by him I envy him he is one of the smartest people I know and a true friend and brother in-law. And to see him interact with his family is such a blessing. he is a family man he loves his grandkids to death that's all he talks about. He takes care of his home, family, friends, and neighbors cause that's the gene I know was. he wouldn't have it any other way.

In closing what I'm really saying is he's as honest as you can get and straight to the heart.
